Death and Dying:

A Practical Workshop Exploring Life's Ultimate Transition

October 20, 9:30 am - 4:30 pm

Understanding death as a natural occurrence in life can invigorate one's spiritual practice and contribute to a more meaningful life. This workshop is perfect for healthcare professionals, caregivers, and anyone wishing to prepare for end-of-life transitions.

Amy did extensive hospice training and work for several years in San Francisco during the height of the AIDS epidemic and leads workshops and retreats on this topic around the world.

Appropriate for all levels of students. Potluck lunch. By donation. Please call in advance to register:
