

Milarepa Center Work Study Program

Milarepa Center's Work Study Program is dynamically suited for people who are interested in exploring life, work and practice at a Tibetan Buddhist retreat center.

We offer simple accommodation in our dormitory or camping with your own tent, food, as well as access to programs and retreats in exchange for 30 hours of service per week. Tasks range from cleaning and assisting in the kitchen to gardening and maintenance or a wide variety of other tasks depending on an applicant's particular skill or the need at the center.

Participants are asked for a minimum one month commitment and to live according to our Buddhist Precepts for the duration of their stay:

Respecting all life and avoiding killing and harming others.

Respecting and caring for all belongings and avoiding stealing or taking what is not freely given.

Speaking honestly and avoiding lying.

Respecting healthy relationships and avoiding sexual misconduct.

Living a healthy lifestyle and avoiding the use of intoxicants.

If you are interested being part of our Work Study Program, please send your resume along with the Work Study Application to Jeff Garnette at milarepa@milarepacenter.org.
